

Awarded in February 2009!

We are pleased to announce that CCC! Video On Demand has been chosen as one of Scholastic Administr@tor's 2008-2009 Best in Tech for Video Approaches. It originally appeared in our March/April 2008 issue.

Scholastic Administr@tor is trusted by 85,000 of the nation's top administrators to provide insight into the best education solutions and the most effective technology and leadership strategies. Every product chosen as the Best in Tech has been hand-picked and carefully evaluated by our expert administrator-reviewers.

We will also recognize the Best in Tech Award Winners from the 2008-2009 school year at a formal awards ceremony during the 2009 National Educational Computing Conference. We look forward to honoring you and your company's achievement in Washington D.C. Congratulations!

Sincerely,
